

SOCIAL EVENTS

Bazar News Large Sum.

Barbara Fritchie tent, No. 31, daughters of Veterans, sponsored what proved to be the most successful bazar of the season yesterday afternoon at Memorial hall, and in spite of the fact that yesterday was the coldest and most disagreeable day of the early winter season, a good crowd of friends called and purchased the many pretty and useful articles which the members of the tent had prepared. The articles netted $201, and when all the reports are in it is expected that this sum will be raised to $225, some $25 over the amount which the organization had set out to make.

All the fancy articles were disposed of, but there were a few fancy and plain aprons left, and these will be sold at an apron sale which the tent will hold in the near future. The committee members and the president, Mrs. Essie Elmon, wish to thank their friends who helped them make the affair the success which it proved to be. Mrs. Elmon was general chairman of the bazar and she was assisted by the following committee heads: Mrs. Beattie Barth Richardson of the fancy apron committee, Mrs. Belle Jones of the colored apron committee, Mrs. Jennie McAfee of the rug committee, Mrs. Amelia Agnes of the quilt committee, Mrs. Bertha Yoh of the fancy work committee, Mrs. Daisy Cook of the parcel post committee, Mrs. Selma Hanson of the pillow slip committee.

Luncheon was served in the dining room during the afternoon by a committee which consisted of Mesdames Martha Hanson, Ella Fisher, Mary Barth, Ella Fox, Mrs. Nichols and Alberta Atkinson. Sandwiches, doughnuts or cake and coffee were served the guests. An embroidered pillow which had been presented to John Buford post was sold at the bazar yesterday and netted $2.50, which was immediately turned over to Comrade Stanton by the bazar committee. The tent will have its next regular meeting Friday, when the annual election of officers will take place.

Plan for Card Party.
The lady Eagles' drill team met yesterday afternoon. The most important business was the planning of a card party to be given Dec. 13 at the Eagles' home. The party will be held in the afternoon and there will be card games and an apron sale in both the afternoon and evening. The committee in charge of the afternoon party is made up of Mrs. J. F. Grotzger, Mrs. John Furlong, Mrs. Will Gordon and Mrs. Bert Plough. Those in charge of the evening party are Mrs. P. J. Carlson, Mrs. W. White, Mrs. R. F. Berry and Mrs. J. C. Parker.

HL-Y Girls Plan Unique Sale.
The girls' HL-Y cabinet had a meeting at 6 o'clock dinner at the Y. W. C. A. last evening. Reports from the different committees were read, the most interesting being that given by Miss Henrietta Dittman, chairman of the social committee. The girls are making elaborate plans for a bazar to be given from 11 until 7 o'clock Saturday, Dec. 6, in the association gym. The department store idea is to be carried out in the arrangement of the bazar. The girls will wear the conventional black dress and white cap of the well dressed saleslady and there will be counters to interest everyone, a bakery booth for the domestic, confectionery for the frivolous, fancy work for the Christmas shopper, stationery for the lover and toys for the children. The girls want the children to bring their Christmas lists, for Santa Claus will be there and he will want to give every child just what he wants. There will be a lunch room where tea will be served from 2 until 4.

Sevens Club in Moline.
The Sevens club met yesterday with Miss Mary Anthony, 1327 Sixth avenue, Moline. Mrs. James Eckhart gave a paper on "The City of Canton" and Miss Laura Lukens of Rock Island gave one on "Social and Domestic Life." Refreshments were served late in the afternoon. The next meeting will be Dec. 15 and will be an open meeting when Mrs. L. H. Hazard and Mrs. G. A. Shalberg will entertain the Sevens and their husbands at a buffet dinner at 6:30 at the Shalberg home, 623 Twenty-third street, Moline.

Richardson-Pope Engagement.
Announcement was made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Bernice Thelma Pope, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Pope of 1208 Perry street, Davenport, to F. Wayne Richardson of Waterloo, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Richardson of Los Angeles, Cal., at a pretty party given Saturday evening by the bride elect's cousin, Mrs. Harry Simonson, 1127 Fourth street, Rock Island.

The guests at the affair were 14 intimate friends of Miss Pope's. No date has been set for the nuptials, but they will probably be celebrated during the early summer. Rose and gold, chosen by Miss Pope for her wedding colors, were carried out with rose and gold chrysanthemums. Candle shade favours and other accessories were in the chosen shades. As the guests left, the dinner table was messenger arrived bearing the news of the engagement.

Miss Pope is a graduate of the Davenport high school, as is Mr. Richardson and he was later assistant physical director at the Muscatine Y. M. C. A., but recently accepted the position as head of the physical department at the Waterloo association. He spent a number of months in the navy.

Young People Elect Officers.
The Young People's society of the South Park Presbyterian church held their meeting at the Y. W. C. A. last evening. After a social time dinner was served to the 25 members present in one of the downstairs dining rooms. Rev. W. S. Ogilvie acted as toastmaster and all called upon responded with very clever impromptu toasts. After dinner Arthur Colburn presided at the business meeting.
